Court of Appeal of the State of California

IN AND FOR THE

Fifth Appellate District

F055039 People v. Warren Jr.

The judgment is reversed and the matter remanded with directions to the trial court to conduct a Marsden hearing with Warren's original counsel. If, after the Marsden hearing, the trial court determines there was not good cause for the appointment of new counsel, the judgment shall be reinstated. If good cause is established, the trial court shall appoint new counsel and direct new counsel to file a motion to set aside the plea. If the motion is granted, the original charges shall be reinstated, Warren's not guilty plea shall be entered, and the matter shall be set for trial. If the motion is denied, the judgment shall be reinstated.

By the Court.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the appeal in the above-entitled action is dismissed.

F057606 Cantrall v. W.C.A.B.; Wal-Mart

Let a writ of review issue returnable before this court forthwith. The WCAB's April 7, 2009, order denying reconsideration is annulled. The matter is remanded to the WCAB to conduct any further proceedings it deems appropriate, including granting reconsideration and taking additional evidence or briefing, to enable the WCAB to determine whether Wal-Mart's drug testing policy discriminated against Cantrell as an industrially injured worker and if so, whether its conduct in implementing and applying the policy was necessary and directly linked to the realities of doing business
